ARE WE ON TRACK
TO ACHIEVE
GENDER EQUALITY
BY 2030?

DATA REVEAL

THE DISTANCE TO EQUAL IS LONG.

AND THE TIME IS SHORT.

Achieving full gender equality, one of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), could take close to 300 years if the current rate of progress continues

WOMEN & GIRLS ARE INVISIBLE.

ONLY 47% OF DATA NEEDED TO MONITOR
SDG 5 ARE CURRENTLY AVAILABLE

There is a significant gap in the potential and reality of gender data to advance issues of gender equality around the world

A young Black woman with her hair pulled back, wearing a yellow ribbed sweater, is focused on adjusting a piece of laboratory equipment. She is in a laboratory setting with various metal stands and equipment visible in the background. The lighting is soft and focused on her.

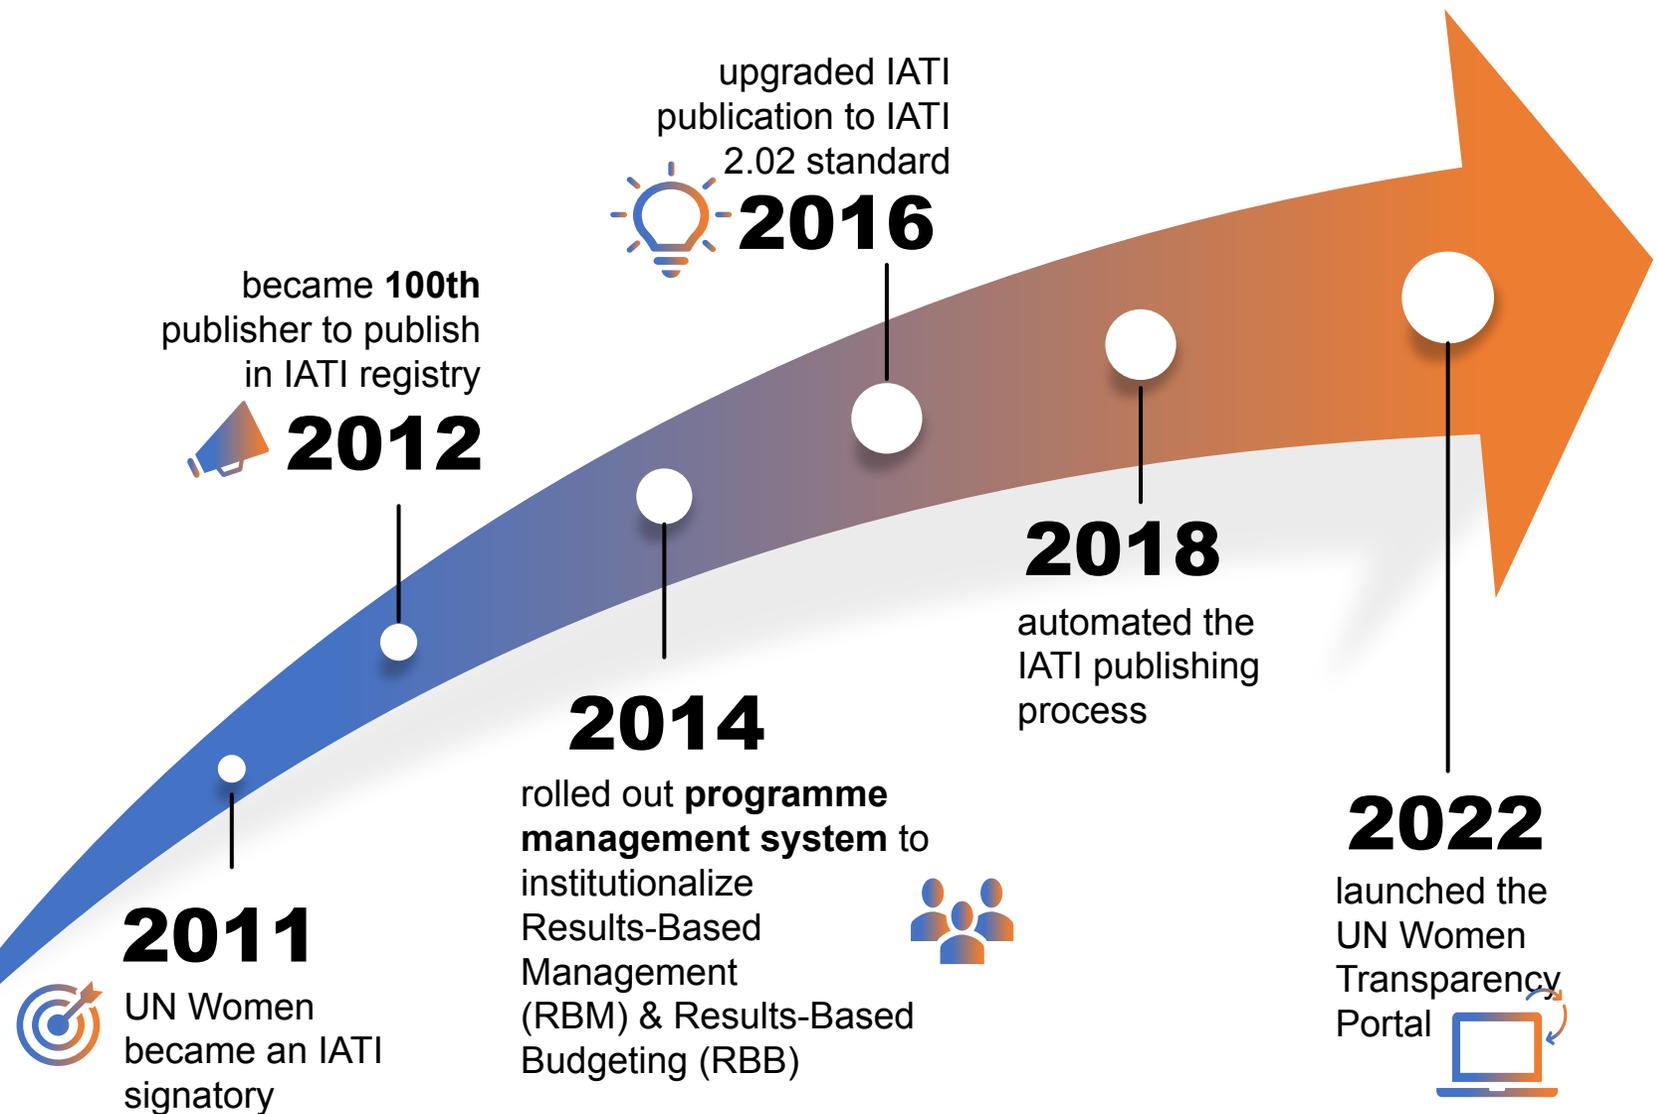

The Transparency Portal

is an interactive and data-driven platform that makes UN Women's results and resources data visible to partners and to the public.

It is based on the International Aid Transparency Initiative (IATI) standard.
